As soon as we touch, my temperature rises.

Bushido Angels Presents:

I NEED THE SUN. 1

Even if the end comes... these warm, sunny days are perfect.

Yeah, well.
it's definitely...
cooler...
here...
but...
it's a little...
I hope no one sees us.

I've got my mind on something else...
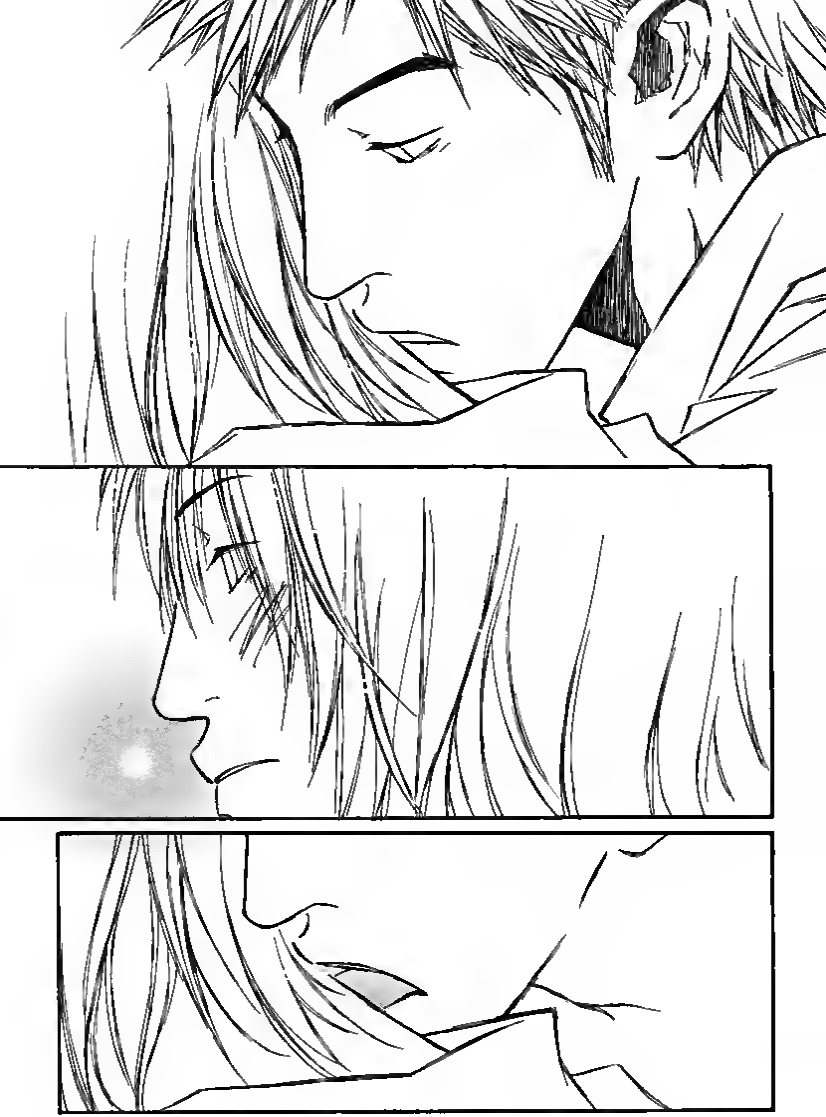
something more fun...
...
No, but I think YOU are, Sou-kun!
Are you thinking dirty thoughts?
HA HA HA HA
sigh



S... Sou-kun...
You wanna do this.. here ..?
Uh huh...
It's cool in here... It feels good.
Your skin...
... Sou-kun...
I think you've cooled down enough.

I like the way your heart sounds, Furuse.
Sou-kun...
said that he liked to listen to the sound of my heart.
Do hearts sound different?
Yeah.
You can hear it really well through a thin chest.
HA HA HA HA!
Would you reject someone because he's chubby?
After all...
some guys don't have thin, hard chests!

They're standing up now.
Your nipples..
!!!
SPEECHLESS
It's a good quality.
Sou-kun...
NN

In this way ...
he often speaks metaphorically about a person's body parts, but...
AH
UH
maybe it's because Sou-kun cherishes me the most ...
that recently... I've begun to understand him.
AHN

But, after all...
Sou-kun...
Sou-kun...
AH... SO HOT...
What's with the heat around here?! It's not even June!
I DON'T GET IT!
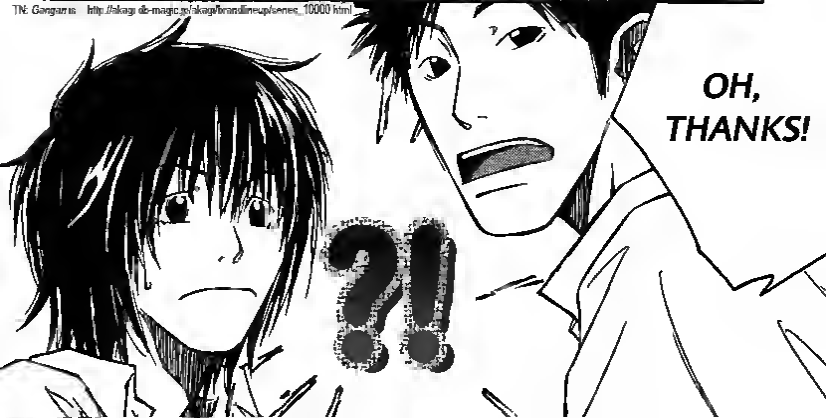
It hasn't rained either. The farmers are gonna cry!
NO. AT THIS RATE, THEY'RE GONNA DIE!
T... TEN?
AND FUJI-MURA?

Here we go...
Ah... I knew it would be cool in the lab.
It's like hell in winter, though.
Or a mountain top in Siberia...
HeA HeA HeA HeA HeA
S... SOU-KUN!!!
SOU-KUN!!!
I CAN HEAR TEN'S VOICE REALLY CLOSE BY.
And Fujimura's too...
W-WA/T...! TIME OUT!

Yeah. I brought my lunch today.
But, after you eat, Fujimura, and Sou-kun gets his Marlboros, I've got a treat for you guys.
What the hell? That's all you bought?
See...?!
And, after that, there's ice cream!
Gangan-kun!
SOU-KUUUN...!
They were out of soft packs. You're gonna have to settle for hard.

TN: Gangan is http://akagi.db-magic.jp/akagi/brandlineup/series_10000.html



Uh . . I told the guys to meet us in the lab next door.
Sorry, I forgot!
...
Sou-kun...
?
Sou-kun...
RATTLE RATTLE

GIMME SOME OF THAT ICE CREAM!
FIGURES.
I DON'T GET THIS AT ALL!!!
SLAM!
OH, JUST SHUT THE FUCK UP
Aren't you "domesticating" him, Sou-kun?
WOW! As usual, he's rude to everyone but Sou-kun...
We've got a "let them run wild" policy at my house...

Maybe he stopped in the middle of some-thing?
Been having your period all week?
Bad mood?
SOU-KUN !!!
Right. He can hardly wait.
And he can't wait to finish?
Huh?
Why are you guys skipping class in such an obvious place?!
We've got a reputation to keep up Yashiro-san...

TN *http://www.haagen-dazs.co.jp/product/fineqa/index.html

WHY THE HELL WOULD I BUY SUCH EXPENSIVE ICE CREAM?!
Want some ice cream?
Thanks
Suee.
HERE, IT'S GARIGARI-KUN
Who's that?
It is Haagen Dazs CS?
That's Yashiro-san. He's a 3rd year and president of the Astronomy Club.
And a member of this club ..
Hmm...
Did you say "this club?"
...

"The Biology Club?"
Well, sorta...
The truth is, we set it up to collect money under the guise of "club expenses."
It's called a dummy corporation...
YUP. YUP!
We make good use of that "biological creature" Taguchi-sensei's research grant!
Ooh, that old guy...?
That "biological creature" Taguchi?
...

We're pretty much the only members... but we've got some "ghost" members to lend us credibility.
Against my better judgment ...
But I'm different! I joined for real because I genuinely love both biology and astronomy...!
Why... are you looking at me like that?
No reason. .
Whether you joined for real or not...
it doesn't make a difference if you don't help us out.

But you didn't come to our rescue...
HUH
Is this about that meeting?! Are you guys still holding a grudge over the way club funds were divided up this semester?
The Biology Club's funding was cut, but it was the Gardening Club's fault!
The Astronomy Club had nothing to do with it!
How cruel...!
You're not one of us. I'm gonna cry..
HEY NOW..!
You know what they call you guys around here?
"Club fund thieves..."
Yeah, I know
I mean, it's the truth!
HaA HaA HaA HaA!
AWW argue clamor

I've been hungry all day.
Who knows?
Hey... how long is this gonna go on?
What have you got after this?
Fifth period, physics. sixth period, social studies. What about you?
You wanna go?
Sharp RATTLE
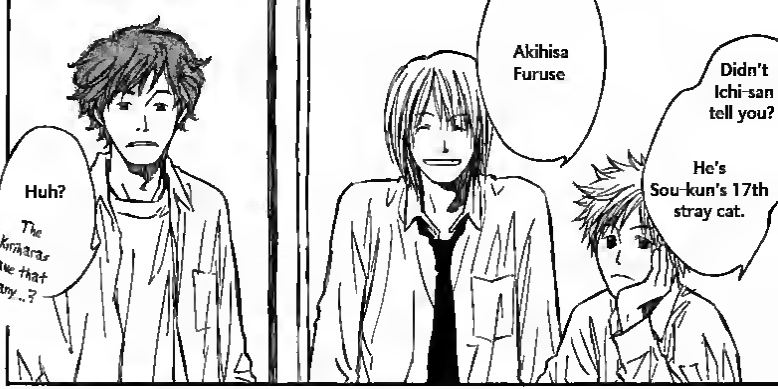
I don't remember.

My ice cream SUCKED!
You guys can tell me later
Huh? You're leaving, Sou-kun?
Don't you want to hear about Ishidou?
Oh.
Okay...
Who's that rude new guy?
And now they're going, "He's twice as bad!"
Still only thinking about yourself, huh?



so it's been one month since Furuse came to this town.

Sou-kun and Furuse...

have been "dating" (for now, let's assume that's the right word.) for a month already.

Hey, come on... Tell us all about FURUSE...!

Uh...
Well...
Is that what it looks like? Is it because we're in the same class?
You're totally wrong. We actually hate each other.
Aren't you his best friend, Ten-chan?
Honestly, I haven't got a clue ..
HaHa HaHa!
Q: "Does Furuse have any hobbies?"
...
Q: "What sort of things does Furuse like?"
...
Q: "What type of girl does Furuse like?"
...
HUH...?
We're relying on you, Ten-chan.
Looking Away
Sorry. I really don't know.
Ask him yourself.

AH... WHY IS IT ALWAYS ABOUT HIM..
SIGH
What's with that big sigh?
As they say, "The king has donkey ears."*
TN: Reference to King Midas. See http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Midas
What's this? Only three people today?
You look so down.
That's because you're late, Ishidou-chan.
I mean, a teacher shouldn't forget the time.

I always thought you were part of the "Slacker Club," Sou-kun.
Are you surprised?
Yeah.
Well, that's pretty much true. Actually, Ten, Fujimura and I... started out in the "Slacker Club."
Did you win?
But, in our first year of high school, we got involved in this drunken brawl with three guys, and wound up getting in trouble with the police.
Bet on the horses again?
Luckily or unluckily...
our geology teacher, Ishidou, happened to be watching in the crowd and came to our rescue that day.
With ticket 2-8
Sure did! I won 30 thousand...

So... ever since...
we don't deny Ishidou anything.
..
Behind my back Ishidou asked Ten and Fujimura .. to rebuild the nearly defunct Biology Club on Taguchi's behalf, and increase the ghost members Ten became the club president, and, Fujimura, the vice-president.
So, even though the club is a total lie now, the results (in terms of income) are good, right?
HA HA HA HA HA

So.... we're the "club fund thieves..."
Even you just use that name... without thinking twice about it.
It's okay.
Whatever.
Aren't you in that club, Sou-kun?
In that case, I'll join, too.
...
What?
Furuse is mistaken if he thinks he's acting like a man.
Nothing..

We're building..
a green house.
Ooh! Good Ooh!
What for?
For Taguchi's research, of course!
Let's grow some nice!
On the roof?
HA HA HA HA HA!
Finally, we got the school's permission They said, "We want you to finish it quickly, before the rainy season starts."
That Ishidou guy
he always has such a carefree attitude
I'm worried he'll only help when he feels like it!
You take off early, Sou-kun..
And Yashiro-san doesn't have a lot of free time.
What about Fujimura?
Fujimura, huh..?

What luck!
If it means the Biology Club gets exclusive rights to the rooftop, then I'm all for it!
HA HA HA HA!
Such enthusiasm ...
Go for it!
Hey...
Sou-kun...
doesn't this concern you, too?!
What is it?
Ten and Fujimura said that, starting tomorrow after school, they're gonna build a greenhouse on the roof in the middle of this damn heat.

...
I'll join them.
What?
He's "too busy?"
Sou-kun isn't coming?
He's "lending" us some help.
END
